St. James's, November 16.

AN humble Addreſs of the Governour and Council of the Province of the Maſſachuſett's Bay in New-England, having been tranſmitted hither, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Jeremiah Dummer, Eſq; Agent of that Province, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Turin, Nov. 7. Laſt Saturday in the Night Madame Royale was taken ill of a Fever. On the Notice given to his Sardinian Majeſty he arrived here on Sunday Morning at Break of Day, the Prince arrived in the Afternoon; on Monday Madame Royale being much better, his Majeſty with the Prince returned to the Venetia. Tueſday being the Feaſt of St. Hubert the Patron of the Hunters, there was a general Stag hunting, at which his Majeſty appeared with the Prince and ſeveral Noblemen all in new hunting Dreſſes: His Majeſty treated in Publick all the Hunters that appeared that Day, and in the Evening returned to Turin, and the next Day to the Venetia.

Lisbon, Nov. 5, N. S. On the 22d paſt, the Cardinal d'Acunha arrived here from Rome, and was received by his Portugueſe Majeſty with ſingular Marks of Favour. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Falmouth, is in this River preparing to ſail in a few Days: On the 1ſt Inſtant arrived here the Solebay a Britiſh Man of War from Newfoundland, and ſhe will very ſpeedily proceed for the Downes. The three Maltеſe Men of War formerly mentioned to be here, went out of this Harbour on the 9th paſt, after having received a Preſent of 500 Barrels of Powder out of his Portugueſe Majeſty's Magazine. They were to cruiſe for ſome Days Northward as far as the Cape de Mondego on the Coaſt of this Kingdom, and then go up the Mediterranean. The Prince of Portugal ſent them alſo great Quantities of Proviſions of all Kinds, and their Ships were ordered to be repaired by Workmen from the King's Yards.

Gibraltar, Oct. 12, O. S. His Majeſty's Ship the Dunſley Galley came into this Bay two Days ago, and ſailed this Day in order to joyn the Wincheſter and Lime Men of War, which are expected to come through the Streights. A Spaniſh Man of War of 26 Guns came into this Bay Yeſterday; the Captain ſays he left five more of that Squadron at the Back of the Hill, and ſays he is to joyn them as ſoon as the Wind will permit, and that their Orders are to cruiſe up the Streights.

Paris Nov. 21. On the 19th Inſtant the Cardinal du Bois was elected a Member of the French Academy, by the whole Aſſembly unanimouſly. Yeſterday in the Evening M. de Treſſan Biſhop of Nantes, Chief Almoner of the Duke of Orleans, performed the Ceremony of Chriſtening in the Chapel of the Palais Royal, Mademoiſelle de Beaujolois: The Duke of Chartres was Proxy for the King of Spain as Godfather, and the Dutcheſs of Orleans for the Queen of Spain as Godmother, and ſhe was named Philip Elizabeth. It is adviſed from Madrid, that the Counteſs of Lemos is appointed firſt Lady of the Bed-Chamber to Mademoiſelle de Beaujolois, who it is ſaid will ſet out from hence for Spain before the End of this Month. The King with his Court continues at Verſailles. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans is in a very bad State of Health. Letters from Cambray adviſe, that the Marqueſs de Lede was preparing to return from thence to Spain in a Week or 10 Days.

Windſor, Nov. 13. This Day Charles Duke of Bolton, John Duke of Rutland, and John Duke of Roxburghe, were inſtalled Knights Companions of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter in the Royal Chapel of St. George, within the College of the Caſtle of Windſor.

Navy-Office, Nov. 9, 1722.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy obſerving in the Comptrolling the Payments of Ships now paying upon the Liſts of Arrears, that ſeveral Letters of Attorney and other Powers of old Dates, are produced for the receiving Seamens Wages; and it being probable that many of the Parties who executed the ſame are dead, as well as ſome to whom the ſaid Letters of Attorney, &c. were made; to prevent therefore for the future, as much as poſſible, any Abuſes His Majeſty or His Subjects may be expoſed to thereby, or by falſe Powers, ſeveral of which have been detected: Theſe are to give Notice, that no Wages for any Man's Service in His Majeſty's Ships will be paid, where the Perſon does not appear himſelf, (or the Witneſſes to his Letter of Attorney) by any Power but ſuch as ſhall be witneſſed by two or more Commiſſion or Warrant Officers of His Majeſty's Ships in which they ſerve, or by two or more of the Officers of His Majeſty's Yards; or by the Mayor, or two or more of the Magiſtrates of ſome Corporation; or by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh (where the other cannot be had;) or here in London by a Publick Notary, or ſome of the Officers
